

BANNER PARADE FOR SUFFRAGE WAITS FORWARD

Women's Political Union Division to Go Through East Side.

FLOAT AND NURSE GUARD ATTRACTIONS

Miss L. Johnson, Leader, Bars Use of Wild West Togs by Her Cavalrywomen.

Only the sun shines on Saturday afternoon there will be more women in the parade than have ever marched in a city before, all moved by a single desire to show their devotion to the cause of equal suffrage.

The main part of the parade will start in Washington Square. The Women's Political Union, before it joins the parade of march on Fifth Avenue, will start at Second Avenue and Houston Street and march through a part of the East Side.

Orders have been given to the members of the Women's Political Union to march in the East Side parade not only in rain or shine, but in light or darkness. Since the end of their procession may not get under way before dark, torches are to be provided.

Miss Leslie Johnson, on horseback, will lead the Women's Political Union division of the parade. She will carry an American flag and will be followed by a group of cavalrywomen in conventional riding costumes, with black derbies, sashed with purple, white and green.

They will be marshalled by Miss Albert Hill and Miss Marion Tompkins. The cavalrywomen will be followed by Mrs. Marcus M. Marks, carrying the banner of the Women's Political Union. Mrs. Inez Mithelland Boissevain, Mrs. Sidney Borg and Mrs. Evan Evans will assist her. They will be followed by the Nahan Franko band, after which will march Mrs. Joseph Griswold Deane, chairman of the parade committee, and Mrs. Josephine Heiderhase, as a guard to the executive board of the Women's Political Union, headed by Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch. The executive board consists of Miss Louise Heiderhase, Miss Anna Constance, Mrs. Frances F. Einstein, Mrs. Rose Perkins Hale, Mrs. Florence Kelley, Mrs. Caroline Lexow Babcock, Miss Alice H. G. Perkins, Miss Ethel R. Pomeroy, Miss Margaret Wilson, Reeve and Miss Elizabeth Selden Rogers.

15th Banner District. Behind this group will come the union banner Senatorial district, the 15th, headed by its chairman, Mrs. Francis Higginson Cabot, with whom will march Mrs. Thomas L. Chadbourne, Jr., Mrs. Edward Livingston Hunt, Mrs. Edward McVicker, Miss Alice Lewisohn, Mrs. Alfred Roelker, Jr., Mrs. Walter Chambers and Mrs. Walter Ehrlich.

The street marshals and their divisions will follow. Miss Ethel R. Pomeroy will head the first street division, consisting of groups marshalled by Mrs. Thomas L. Chadbourne, Jr., Mrs. Edward McVicker, Mrs. Linsley Williams, Mrs. Alfred Roelker, Jr., and Mrs. James L. Wright. The second street division will be headed by Miss Elizabeth Cole, who will be followed by the suffrage van "Winner," driven by its organizer, Miss Mildred Taylor. The van will precede a group of Vassar women, marshalled by Miss Gertrude Folks; the teachers' group, marshalled by Miss Emily O'Keefe; groups marshalled by Miss Louise Heiderhase, Miss Brideline Bowdler, Miss Eleanor Brannan, Miss Kate Claghorn, of the 18th Senatorial District; Miss Chickering, Miss H. Bernays and Mrs. Shanshan, of the Central New York group, and the New

In the Third Street group, marshalled by Miss Ellen O'Keefe, and groups marshalled by Mrs. Nora Blatch de Forest, who leads the Elizabeth Cad. Stanton centennial committee, which will follow, there will be two automobiles, in which Mrs. Robert G. Ingersoll, Mrs. Frank Carpenter and Mrs. Henry Villard will ride. The men's group, marshalled by Arthur Levy, will follow the centennial committee, after which will come a group marshalled by Mrs. Henry Butterworth; The Bronx group, marshalled by Mrs. Carroll; a group marshalled by Mrs. Olga Chippendale; the men and women groups led by Miss Pauline Cahn and Miss Charlotte Frank; and groups marshalled by Miss Minnie Friedman, Mrs. L. Noland, Miss L. L. Woodbridge and Miss Lake.

School Girls in Line. The marshal for Fourth Street will be Miss Harriet E. Porritt. The groups in this division, which includes the Julia Richmond High School marchers, will be marshalled by Mrs. William L. Frick, Miss Sallie W. Hovey, Mrs. Robert Niles, Mrs. Emily Downing, Mrs. Howard Hopkins and Miss Helen Schloss.

The Fifth Street group, marshalled by Mrs. Keck and Mrs. Calvin Tompkins will lead. These will be followed by the high school group under Mrs. Mary Bollinger and the Equal Suffrage League. Then will come the Brooklyn division, marshalled by Miss Lillian Walker, the group from the 22d Senatorial District led by Miss Warner, and the Brooklyn County division.

Miss Albert Hill, marshal of the Women's Political Union cavalry brigade, has issued special instructions to her recruits. They are to report to her at 2:30 Saturday afternoon on the east side of Houston Street, at Second Avenue. They are to wear any conventional riding habit, but every one must have a derby hat. Western rough-riding costumes are barred.

The Women's Political Union section of the parade will start at 3:30. The line of march will be from Houston Street and Second Avenue through Twenty-second Street to Fifth Avenue, where the division will join the main parade, falling in behind the Empire State Campaign Committee and proceeding to the end of the march at the Fifty-ninth Street Plaza.

The "anti's" have accused the suffrage workers of cruelty in allowing children to march on Saturday, but the suffragists have refuted this accusation by furnishing a nursemaid guard. The children, who will march in lines of eight, will be flanked by the nurses. In the children's van, which will be decorated by Kewpies, the youngsters of different suffragists will ride. Among them will be Miss Anne Smyke, Mrs. William Withrow, Miss Catherine McGloin, Master Vincent Kelly and Miss Grace Vivian Haskell.

Float Parade's Feature. The float in the international division of the parade, on which ten women will ride, promises to be one of the sensations of the afternoon. "Victory" will be portrayed by Mrs. Philip Tolman, wife of the artist. The three other symbolical figures will be Liberty, Equality and Justice. Six women will represent the continents, on all of which women have some form of suffrage. Those on the float besides Mrs. Tolman, will be Miss Theodora Bean, Mrs. Crystal Eastman Benedict, Miss Janet Travers, Mrs. Alice Barrows Fernandez, Miss Eleanor Lawson, Mrs. Florence Maule Undergraff, Miss Marian Parkhurst, Mrs. Julius Frank and Miss Katherine Twomey. Mrs. Philip Lydig has offered her house at the northwest corner of Washington Square for the use of the women who will have to dress for the tableau.

Miss Lillian Russell will march with the International Woman Suffrage Alliance, while a Beauty Banner Squad has been arranged by Miss Portia Willis, head marshal of the Manhattan Borough Division. In this squad will be Miss E. Oesterreicher and Mrs. J. Lemay, who was Miss Adele Lewisohn. Directed by Miss Willis, sixty marshals will handle the Manhattan Division, which will be the largest of all and will include besides regular workers in the assembly districts, an army of girls from stores and factories.

LINDABURY'S TALK REFUTED

Suffragists Sure Legislature Can Give Presidential Ballot.

The National American Woman Suffrage Association last night took exception to the remark of Richard W. Lindabury, that "it is obviously absurd to say that the New Jersey Legislature can by statutory enactment permit women to vote at Presidential elections." "He was an offhand opinion," says the association, "and we believe on fuller consideration he will be glad to revise it."

"The United States Constitution says that the Presidential electors from each state must be appointed in such manner as the legislature thereof may provide. The case for the Presidential suffrage rests securely on that."

WILSON GLORIES IN PEACE STAND

Urges National Thanksgiving for Position of U. S. in World at War.

Washington, Oct. 21.—President Wilson, in a proclamation to-day designating Thursday, November 25, as Thanksgiving Day, says that the greatest cause for Thanksgiving in the United States is the fact that this country has been at peace, while most of Europe has been at war.

"We have been able to assert our rights and the rights of mankind without breach of friendship with the great nations with whom we have had to deal," says the proclamation, which reads:

"It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His many blessings and mercies to us as a nation. The year that is now drawing to a close since we last observed our day of national Thanksgiving has been, while a year of discipline because of the mighty forces of war and of changes which have disturbed the world, also a year of special blessing for us."

"Another year of peace has been vouchsafed us; another year in which not only to take thought of our duty to ourselves and to mankind, but also to adjust ourselves to the many responsibilities thrust upon us by a war which has involved almost the whole of Europe. We have been able to assert our rights and the rights of mankind without breach of friendship with the great nations with whom we have had to deal, and while we have asserted rights, we have been able also to perform duties and exercise privileges of succor and helpfulness which should serve to demonstrate our desire to make the offices of friendship the means of truly disinterested and unselfish service."

"Our ability to serve all who could avail themselves of our services in the midst of crises has been increased by a

Why a Big Navy?

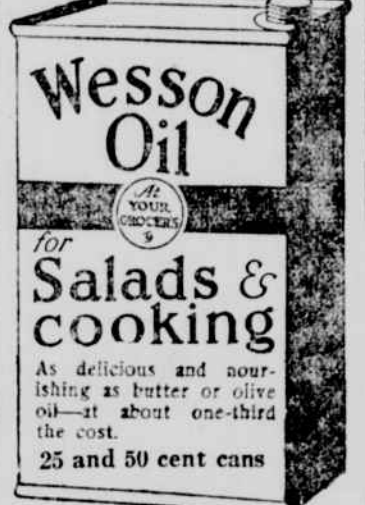

Professor William Ledyard Cathcart—Annapolis man, former naval officer, authority on sea fighting—tells in next Sunday's Tribune why we must build the second biggest navy in the world.

He frankly speaks of our vulnerable points and shows where we are defensible. He tells where a war would be fought and tells why the submarine is over-rated.

It's plain talk from a man with first hand information—and if you read it Sunday you will be prepared to join in the discussion which it will start. By reserving your copy at your newsdealer's to-day you get absolute assurance that your copy will not be sold before you want it.
